A Card.

In the Daily Dispatch of Friday morning, June 3d, appeared an article entitled "Prof. Nicholson and the Students," in which the editor of the Dispatch commented a length on the late geological trip taken by the members of the senier class of the Uni versity of Tennessee, under charge of Prof. Nicholson. In this article the writer makes numerous charges against the conduct both of the class and our professor, which ally verified. We have already witnessed charges are not sustained by the facts of the case. Under these circumstances, we of the above mentioned class having taken part in this expedition and being fully acquainted with the real facts, deem that we owe it as a duty not only to ourselves and to our Professor but to the University and to the public, to correct these mis-statements made by the editor of the Dispatch. The charges in brief are these:

positively forbade it. 3. It is charged that after reaching the field of their expedition, scenes occurred in the use of their fire-arms on the Sabbath, which startled some of the quiet, Sabbathloving people of Blount county, so much so that a storm of indignation was raised, and true bills were found against the students and the professor. In regard to the scenes which the editor says shocked the quiet people of Blount county, we simply say, that the assertion that we simply conducted ourselves in such a manner as to give offense to any one, or to break the Sabbath day is false from beginning to end, and does not deserve notice from any reasonable or respectable person As to true bills being found against us for carrying concealed weapons, although a report of this kind has reached our ears, we have had no sufficient proof of such proceedings, and until we have better authority than the columns of the Dispatch, it is use-Rats, mice, ants, flies, vermin, mosquiless for us to vindicate ourseives in that

In making the above statements, we, oi the senior class, feel that it is to be regretted that we have been drawn into anything that resembles a newspaper controversy: but, as before stated, we think that we owe to our professor the above explanation, as he seems o be the one against whom the editor of the Dispatch levels all of his accusations, As to the personal charges made against Prof. Nicholson, we leave it to older heads than ours to judge of their value; it is not our place to answer them. A Down Town Merchant,

Having passed several sleepless nights, disturbed by the agonies and cries of a suffering DRUGGIST AND PHARMACIST, low's Soothing Syrup was just the article needed, procured a supply for the child. On reaching home and acquainting his wife with what he had done, she refused to have it administered to the child, as she was strongly in favor of Homosopathy. That night the calld passed in suffering. and the parents without sleep. Returning home the day following, the father found the baby still worse; and while contemplating another sleepless night, the moth r stepped from the room to attend to some domestic duties, and left the father with the child. During her absence he administered a portion of the Soothing Syrup to the baby, and said no hing. That night all hands slept w. ll. and the little fellow awoke in the morning bright and happy. The mother was delighted with the sudden and wonderful change, and although at first , ffended at the deception practiced upon her, has continued to use the Syrup, and suffering cry ng babes and restless nights have disappeared. A single trial of the Syrup never yet fa led to relie e the baby, Sold by all Druggists. 25 cents a bottle.
